

Gary Korn

Gary Korn is an attorney with the Office of Chief Counsel, Department of the Army CID, assigned to its Cyber Directorate (CYD), where he regularly addresses issues arising under the Fourth and Fifth Amendments, as well as the use and application of data-related statutes such as the Stored Communications Act.

Before joining CID, Gary was an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the District of Arizona and prosecuted, among other things, defense contract fraud and major narcotics matters. Gary also frequently argued cases before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and instructed at Department of Justice appellate advocacy courses. Earlier, Gary served as a law clerk to the Hon. William E. Doyle, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, and was an attorney for the New York City law firm Willkie Farr & Gallagher. Gary began his career at IBM Corporation as an electrical engineer, where he designed a computer for a U.S. Navy mission.

Gary is a graduate of Cornell University (Electrical Engineering), St. John's (Juris Doctor), and Columbia University (LL.M.)
