

United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces
Washington, D.C.

AI Use in Filings
Before the Court

NOTICE

Litigants and their counsel are reminded that they are responsible for the accuracy and quality of legal documents, including those produced with the assistance of generative artificial intelligence. Counsel are reminded of their duties under Rule 38(a) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure, United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces, which states a counsel's signature certifies that all filings have been reviewed for truthfulness and accuracy. Any violation or use of AI-generated briefing that misstates the law may be subject to sanction.

For the Court,

/s/ Malcolm H. Squires, Jr.
Clerk of the Court