

Recent Topics in Military Justice

Major Nicholas D. Turner

Deputy Staff Judge Advocate, Military Intelligence Readiness Command

Major Nicholas D. Turner currently serves as the Deputy Staff Judge Advocate for the Military Intelligence Readiness Command, Fort Belvoir, Virginia. He will be moving to a Military Personnel Law Attorney role at the Office of the Judge Advocate General, Washington D.C. this summer. He has served in varied legal roles within the U.S. Army including as Deputy Staff Judge Advocate for the 200th Military Police Command; a Judge Advocate Career Manager in the office formerly known as the Personnel, Plans & Training Office; Chief, Military Personnel Law, U.S. Army Human Resources Command; among other assignments. He began his Army service as an enlisted battalion paralegal in 2009. MAJ Turner has a Master of Laws from the Judge Advocate General's Legal Center & School, a Master of Public Administration and a Juris Doctor from the University of Toledo. He resides in Arlington, Virginia with his wife, Abigail. They have two dogs: Ruthie and Bruno.

Written Materials Provided at CAAF Website:

- DAOD 9004-1, Use of Cannabis by CAF Members, 2018, <https://www.canada.ca/en/department-national-defence/corporate/policies-standards/defence-administrative-orders-directives/9000-series/9004/9004-1-use-cannabis-caf-members.html>.
- BETH J. ASCH ET AL., RAND CORP., AN EMPIRICAL ASSESSMENT OF THE U.S. ARMY'S ENLISTMENT WAIVER POLICIES (2021).